Subject: Decision on appeal under the Right to Information Act, 2005.

Sir,

Please refer to your letter (PMOIN/A/2018/60334) dated 12.06.2018 (received online), preferring an appeal under the Right to Information Act, 2005.

2. It is observed that you made a right to information application (51981) dated 05.05.2018 (received online), seeking information relating to, inter alia, attendance of Hon’ble PM in the office.

3. The CPIO, PMO, vide letter dated 07.06.2018, had provided response of this office contained in one (1) page to you.

4. In the appeal, you have expressed dissatisfaction with the response and reiterated that complete information may be provided to you.

5. I have examined the records in the matter. I find that the CPIO, PMO had on 07.06.2018, provided response of this office to you. By way of instant appeal, you have expressed dissatisfaction with the response provided and sought further information. It is held that inputs provided i.r.o. pts. 1 & 2 suffice as they are as per records of this office, and there is no other information remaining to be shared in the matter with you. Regarding pt. 3, it is noted that the CPIO had stated that the information sought was too vague and wide and its compilation would disproportionately divert the public resources attracting provisions of Section 7(9) of the Act. In view of the observations, it was expected that you would make your information request more specific- in terms of scope/time period etc.-so as to make the task of search of the relevant records a practical proposition without putting undue strain on the resources of this office. However, you do not seem to have done the needful and, as such, I find no plausible reason to interfere with the stand of the CPIO, PMO in the matter.
6. Based on the reasons given above, no further action is called for on your appeal and the same is accordingly disposed off.

7. In case you are not satisfied with the given decision, you may prefer 2nd appeal, before the Central Information Commission, Baba Gang Nath Marg, 3rd Floor, Munirka, New Delhi-110067, within 90 days of receipt of this communication by you.

[Signature]

Director & Appellate Authority